Watercolor & Gouache
By Aida Birritteri

OPEN TO ALL LEVELS, BEGINNER AND ADVANCED ARTISTS.

Paint under our shady trees with award winning Plein Air Artist, Aida Birritteri. Bring your easel, folding chair, sunscreen, bug spray, watercolor gear & lunch. Be inspired by Aida's watercolor demonstration, then proceed to create a watercolor of your own. Aida will be there to help you along the way.

ABOUT AIDA: Aida Birritteri, a Cuban-born artist, immigrated to the US in 1968 and grew up in Elizabeth, NJ. She earned a BFA from Rutgers' Mason Gross School of the Arts in 1990. Aida's work has been shown in numerous regional, national, and international exhibitions, including the 2024 National Works on Paper and the 47th International Watermedia Exhibition, where she received a Merit Award. She has taught workshops at the Garden State Watercolor Society, Warren County Arts, and AOY Art Center. Aida paints from her studio in High Bridge, NJ, where she lives with her husband and two daughters. For more information, visit aidabirritteriart.com.
